HIWASSEE

Could it have been two years ago when first we met and learned to blend our talents into one?
And when our ways part will our great blend become a lost memory or our youth?

A love that lasts forever;
 A friendship naught can sever;
 A courage never failing,
 Though evil seems prevailing;
 And joyous, radiant living,
 Made glorious by its giving;
 A faith strong and enduring,
 Unworthy thoughts obscuring;
 And eyes for seeing beauty
 In work, in play, in duty;
 Life ever onward flowing
 And more abundant growing;
 Love, courage, faith, and sweetness
 To make up life's completeness.

ALMA MATER

On the Ole State's southern border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Onward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hiwassee, all Hail!

What is in the makeup of a big man? Here at Hiwassee he is the link between student and teacher, he is the man who can say no to a student and still remain his friend, he is the man who can give his friendship to students and still retain their respect, he is the man in the doorway at ballgames, he is the "dorm mother" at the boys' new dorm, he is the man joking with students in the student center, he is also the man conferring with teachers, lawyers, and governors, he is the man who enjoys our music, he is the man who cares about us. All of these qualities are in the makeup of a big man and because he is all these things, the annual staff of 1967 proudly presents the 1967 Hiwassee to

Dognappers At Work?

Ronnie Baker

Pet owners beware — dognappers may be sneaking about Kingsport.

Mrs. Carson Webb, 1208 Midland Dr., told police Thursday that her dog was missing and other dogs were gone from neighbors' homes on Newbern Road and Greenfield Place.

Mrs. Webb said she believed the animals were stolen, according to police.

Rain Got You Down? It's A 'Dry' Month

Guess what month the most rain fell in Upper East Tennessee. April? Way off. It's July.

But the rains that have been falling the past two days here are running behind July's normal despite all that sloshing around.

Chief meteorologist Jerry Johnson said today that rain is usually around 6 inches a month, but frequent thunderstorms average, July is going to be a lot damper, Johnson said. The week only 1.16 inches of rain fell, most of that was in the first half.

The rain today seems like a lot because it was as damp as usual, missing the record July of 1947.

June Road Shows Are Killing

A total of 12 persons died during June in the county area patrolled by troopers from the Kingsport Division on the Tennessee Highway. The number of deaths was down 12 from June 1966, when 24 persons died on area highways, the trooper said today.

Sullivan County had the death toll with 12 during the month and 45 persons were hurt in a total of 58 accidents.

Two deaths each were reported in Grainger, Greene and Hamblen counties in single fatalities. The victims were Locke, Hawkins, Jefferson, Johnson and Washington. Sullivan accidents left INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Rod Funseth posted a scrambling one-under-par 71 Saturday to retain a two-stroke lead with 18 holes to go in the $100,000 "500" Festival Women Golf Tourney.

The Spokane, Idaho, belter was one of only two players to post a par-71 Saturday, thus playing speedily and keeping the consecutive day.

Frank Beard, who had an under-par 69 Saturday, moved into undisputed second place with a 54-hole score of 210 and

R. H. Sykes, tied for second place at the halfway mark, was third at 211.

Next came Bobby Nichols and Gene Littler at 212, followed by Joe Campbell and Rives McBee at 213, and Bob Goalby and Steve Spray at 214.

The only other player below par for three rounds were defending tourney champion Billy Casper and Cliff Brown at one-under-par 215.

Four others, including amateur Ed Tutwiler, were at even-par 216. The others were Jacky Cupit, Richard Martinez, and Roger Ginsberg.

Funseth, co-leader after the first round Thursday, but also undisputed leader at Friday's halfway mark, had a steady round of 36-35 Saturday, but it wasn't easy. He mixed four birdies in between three bogeys and saved a par-three on the 204-yard 17th hole by canning a 35-foot putt.

He also had Nos. 6 and 7 along with Nos. 15, where he had a 15-foot putt. His No. 2 when he was on No. 9 three-foot putt, when he missed.

The day's best was one-under-par 67, which was tied for the best for the

On the final hole, his drive smashed into a tree and the ball bounced into a bunker. Until his luck ran out, Casper was five under par for the round and four under for the tourney as he settled for a two-under-par 70.

Eas Hel Favorite's Role In All-Star Game

ATLANTA, Ga. (UPI)—Jay Colinger

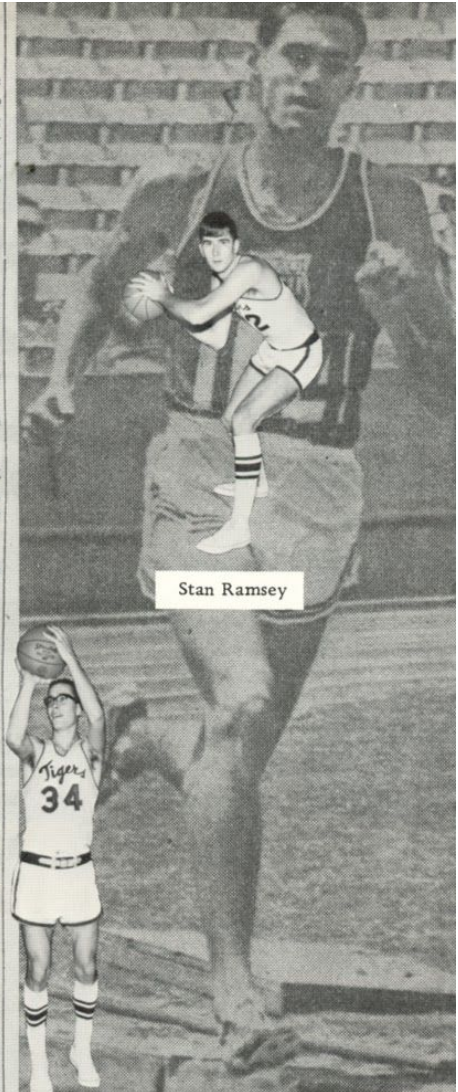

East, led by quarterbacks Steve Spurrier of Florida and Bob Griese of Purdue, held the favorite's Saturday night in the seventh annual Coaches All-America football game. Counting in the East, the blend the past year's Heisman Trophy winner Spurrier and runnerup Griese, the running of Floyd Little of Syracuse and Nick Eddy of Notre Dame. The oddsmakers made a one-touchdown dog. Game time was 10 p.m. EDT. The Midwestern classic was nationally televised, but broadcast out within 102 miles of Atlanta. Despite the blizzard and the presence of the top names in the 1966 college season, 57,000-seat Atlanta Stadium was only half full.

Spurrier and Jon Brittenum of Arkansas were the starting opposing quarterbacks.

The East had Spurrier, Little, Eddy and flanker Dave Dunaway of Duke in its starting offensive backfield. For the West, it was Brittenum, tailback Mel Farr of UCLA, flanker Rod Sherman of Southern Cal and fullback "Lighthorse" Harry Wilson of Nebraska.

Ray McDonald, the 240-pound Idaho fullback who led the nation in rushing last fall, and Gary Rowe of North Carolina State were slated to alternate with Wilson and Dunaway respectively.

I AM TIRED of reading what the SEC and Southern Cal are doing. I am sick of hearing about the Big Ten and how great a conference it is. I am rapidly tiring of reading about the Southeastern Conference where Frank Broyles and Darrell Royal fight it out every year for the title. That is, they did until Southern Methodist came to life in 1966.

Don Weiss

I want to read and hear about the SEC, and I don't want Alabama. In my opinion, there are two teams in the conference right now that could whip the pants off the SEC — Tennessee and Georgia. Another team — outside the conference could do as good a job — Georgia Tech. I want everyone in the country to know that the Southeastern Conference is the best there is, bar none. Team for team, the SEC is the equal of any conference in the country.

THE SEC would do well to follow the example set by the independent colleges and universities. Miami, Fla., Penn State, Pittsburgh, Notre Dame, and the service schools consistently play the roughest schedules in college football. Florida State is rapidly catching up with the leaders.

Competitive

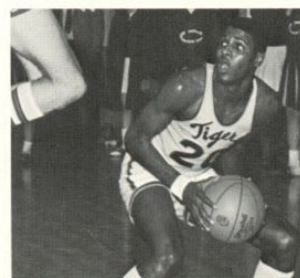

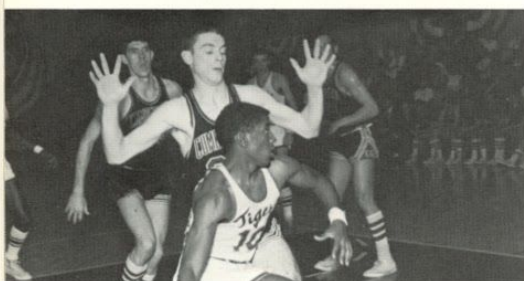

settling in the SEC. Southern Mississippi, Tennessee, and Georgia (Auburn, Mississippi, and Texas Tech).

Bobbs, who has given his ex-con in the SEC, points out that this year's Jackets take on Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Auburn, Texas Tech, and Georgia.

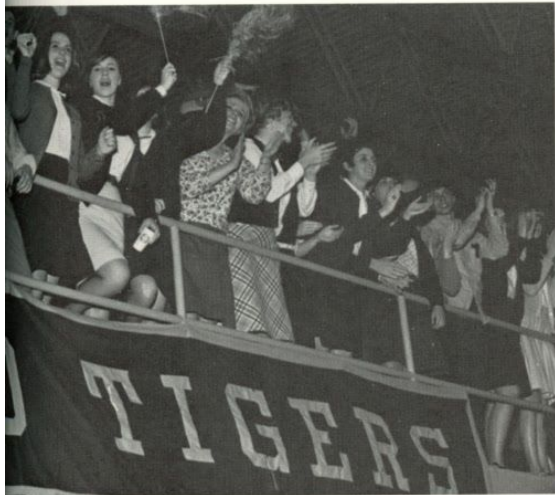

PERHAPS VANDERBILT and Duke will be pushovers for Tech, but that's not the case. Texas Tech has been improving steadily for the past three years. Auburn is always a threat for Tech, Auburn has never about, Tulane is the team it used to be, Miami coming off a year and will be a threat, they have been losing since Ara Parseghian arrived at South Bend, and Georgia, in my opinion, will share of the SEC this year.

The Southeastern Conference does well to look around. Tonto Doug Greenlee would realize that the independents in the South have succeeded in the SEC in scheduling better known and more competition.

MAY EACH DAY

May each day in the week be a good day,
May the Lord always watch over you.
And may all of your hopes turn to wishes,
And may all of your wishes come true.

May each day in the month be a good day,
May you make friends with each one you meet.
And may all of your daydreams be memories,
And may all of your memories be sweet.

The weeks turn to months, and the months into years,
There will be sadness and joy,
There will be laughter and tears.
But one thing I pray to heaven above,
May each of your days be a day full of love.

May each day in the year be a good day,
May each dawn find you happy and gay,
And may all of your days be as lovely
As the ones you have shared with me these days.

May each day of your life be a good day and good night.

This is it, Hiwassee 1967. We hope you have enjoyed it. Thank you all so very much. May God Bless and Keep You One and All Now and Forevermore.
